

January 3rd, 2023

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT-ALIANAIT ARTS FESTIVAL DATES AND APPLICATIONS

Alianait is excited to announce that the 20th annual Alianait Arts Festival will take place from June 29 – July 2nd, 2023.

Applications are open today. We are looking forward to a diverse selection of music from both national and international applicants, with an emphasis on Northern and Indigenous applicants.

Our applications are now open on our website at www.alianait.ca and click on Apply at the top of the page.

Deadline to apply is:
February 15th, 2023

Northern applications are considered Northern residency, artists who live in Nunavut, NWT, Yukon, Nunavik, Nunatsiavut, or internationally, such as Greenland, Alaska, Scandinavia, Sápmi and Russia. Northern content is considered to be where an artist’s musical performance style that is culturally or linguistically linked to Inuit or Indigenous tradition or culture.

The Alianait Arts Festival artists are selected through a selection committee who will meet after the applications have closed. Accepted artists will be contacted in in early February.

For any questions, or help with applications, please contact the Alianait office at info@alianait.ca, or through social media.

Alianait Arts Festival Box 568 Iqaluit, NU X0A 0H0
867 979-6000
www.alianait.ca

